25X1 1. [ ] was ordered to report for registration in Lodz (Q 52/0 93) in April 1950. Together with him, about 200 members of the same class, including about 20 ethnic Germans, were registered. During the registration procedure, Polish Army General Jurga, (fnu), allegedly from a headquarters in Lodz, appeared at the recruiting office for an inspection. *

25X1 2. [ ] registered in Kepno (P 52/D 14) 25X1
[ ] together with men of the 1929 and 1930 classes. The recruiting commission in Kepno came from Ostrow Wlkp. (P 52/C 98). 25X1
[ ] ordered to report to the recruiting office in Ostrow Wlkp. There, he was issued a postcard-size blue certificate of military registration (Zaswiadczenie Wojskowo-Rejestracyjne). [ ] was issued his certificate, 25X1 about 30 young Poles, who were not volunteers, underwent a physical examination. All were of the 1930 class and some were to report for active duty within 10 or 20 days, while others had to wait one year. The draftees were issued a small booklet which specified the date of induction. **

25X1 * [ ] Comment. Possibly General Jurwa, (fnu), who was identified as colonel and chief of the recruiting department at the MON in 1947.

25X1 ** [ ] Comment. The information confirms the previous belief that the induction in the fall of 1950 did not affect the entire 1930 class. [ ] 25X1
Contingents of this class were called up for active service only in April 1951.
